The cost of the backboards came in at $5,266.00, this amount had already been approved and they will be installed before basketball camp starts.

Minutes and treasurers report - motion made to approve and accepted

Memberships: An insert will be put into the mailings that will go out to all LRHS parents regarding PAC membership, we will print 2,500 - we will take a look at memberships cost and discuss at the next meeting.

Concessions: Kim Fitzsimmons thanked Gayle Steinbugler and Robyn Kirk for their help in running the concessions for baseball season, and Lynn Kern for running soccer concessions. Concessions made approximately $4,000 for Odyssey of the Mind.

Golf Tournament: Nanci Lemanowicz has a meeting set for this coming weekend, she will talk to the golf course this week to confirm everything. At this time we have 60 golfers registered, she would like to see that number increase. The information and registration has been put on the LRHS website. The tournament is May 4th with a 1:00pm shotgun start.

Camps: Fred Wollman reported at this time we have 99 campers registered. Registration on line is going well. Flyers will be taken to Brier Creek elementary and middle schools, Hillburn, pleasant Union and Lynn Road. It has been advertised in the N&O play section.

Stars: Janice Schmittle reported she had 391 stars for athletes so far this year, she needs to get spring sports and the 3rd quarter honor roll.

Next Months Meeting: We will discuss dues for PAC membership as well as election of new officers.

Wish List There was discussion of concrete for softball/baseball fields, seeding of the fields and football software. There is still approximately $29,000 to be used for some items on the wish list between now and the end of the summer. These items will be looked at and discussed again at the next meeting.

Athletic Director: Jack Rogers will officially be taking over as the new athletic director on July 1st.
