

SELF-REFLECTION 2

If possible, please type all responses. If not, print legibly in black ink.

1. What have you learned or done so far that has stretched your abilities or skills?

2. Midway through your product, what challenges are you facing as you work towards completion?

3. What has been the easiest part of the product to accomplish so far (mentor meetings, setting aside independent work time, creating the product, etc.)?
